SUCCESS STORIES

From tree to table, Azeri dried fruit is a big hit at home and abroad

Rafael Sulkhayev's family not only managed to open a dried fruit business in 2020, just as the coronavirus pandemic raged, but to even export hundreds of tonnes of its product to both local and foreign markets. Sulkhayev and his cooperative's members were given an EU grant through the Azerbaijan Micro-finance Association (AMFA), which helped him to buy the necessary equipment and set up a small enterprise.
